

Pastor Diamond J. Gantt

is a native of Washington, DC. She accepted the call on her life to preach and spread the Gospel at 15-years-old and was licensed as the youngest minister in the history of The St. Stephen Baptist Church, located in Temple Hills, Md.

She is a 2018 graduate of Hampton University, where she earned a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science, with honors, and a 2021 graduate of The Princeton Theological Seminary, where she earned a Master of Divinity. She is a proud member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.

She is an inductee into The Academy of Preachers and serves as the International Hampton University Alumni Association Chaplain. Currently Pastor Diamond serves as the Associate Pastor of Vision Development and Execution at The Mount Zion Baptist Church in Nashville, Tennessee.

She is dedicated to the assignment God has placed on her life, as God has afforded her the opportunity to minister to people locally, nationally and internationally. She looks forward to staying connected virtually to this generation and all those she can serve. Pastor Diamond can be found on Instagram @DiamondJGantt.
